

Natalie VonRaven

I am Natalie VonRaven, acrylic painter and artisan hailing from Alberta, Canada.

Dynamic characters, big gleaming eyes and hi contrast color schemes equally inspire and fashion my trademark style. Creating from an eclectic studio in High River Alberta, I compose each piece with bold expressionism and metaphorical undertones in mind. Since first emerging into the art scene in 2008, I have created hundreds of paintings which adorn the homes and private collections of art enthusiasts across the globe.

When I'm not painting, I still like to push creativity to the limits! Culinary arts, woodworking, welding, gardening, sewing, tatting, refinishing antiques, et al.

But first and foremost, I'm the proud co-captain of team VonRaven!
Two kids, two dogs, three cats and a myriad of fish.
